And still the libel suits come against Mayor William Glasmann and the Standard Publishing company. The latest suit to be brought against Mr. Glasmann and the company was filed last evening in the county clerk's office by Aitys. C. C. Richards and J. D. Skeen, representing Alice Lewis Richards who asks for damages in the sum of $10,000 against the mayor and his papers for alleged defamation of character. That the publication of the alleged malicious articles has greatly injured plaintiff a good name and character, for which she desires $10,000 damages. The members of Mrs. Richards family now have libel suits pending hearing in the district court aggregating $50,000, all against the mayor and his publishing company. Through much work on the part of sheriff Bailey, two men who gave their names as J. H. Cook and T. E. Webster are behind the bars at the county jail at Evanston, being held for the Reno, Nev., officials on the charge of burglary. A few days ago these two men were in Ogden and pawned a number of knives and guns at Hymen's second hand store for a cost, vest and hat. Sheriff Bailey had learned that such goods had been stolen from Reno and immediately took the goods into his possession and notified the sheriff at Reno, who sent an exact description of the goods taken from the store and the goods pawned here were part of the identical stuff, but the two men had gone east. Sheriff James was notified and placed the two men under arrest, and secured about $75 worth more goods. The Reno officers have notified Sheriff Bailey that they will start for Evanston for the prisoner just as soon as they can get requisition papers.
